ENRIETTO'S CASE IS NOW IN HANDS OF JURY

The appeal case of Ogden City against Cesare Enrietto was concluded before Judge Harris this afternoon and submitted to the jury for consideration.

Enrietto was charged in the municipal court with selling liquor without a license, March 16, 1914, and found guilty in Judge Reeder's court. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $150 or serve 150 days in jail. He appealed to the district court. The jury in the district court was composed of W. R. Stoddard, Francis Wright, Leroy H. Leavitt, J. E. Hansen, Thomas A. MacBeth, Thomas C. Foley, Isaac Guy Clark and J. D. Brown.

TWO HUNDRED FLIES ARE THE PRICE OF ADMISSION

The Alhambra Theatrical company has loaned its good offices to the city sanitary inspector's department for the annihilation of the flies in the city, by offering a ticket to any show at the Orpheus, Isis or Globe theaters, to any child who delivers 200 flies at the office of the city sanitary inspector in the city hall.

Inspector Shorten has arranged to furnish small boxes to the youngsters, to carry the flies in and is ready at any time to give them out. Within the past five days, 16 tickets, which account for the sudden demise of 3200 winged pests, have been given away at the office. The inspector suggests that the fathers who are "touched" for the price of a "movie" show, tell the children to help themselves and the community by earning the ticket, in the manner above explained. The tickets will be given away all summer.

SUMMER BIBLE CLASS A SUCCESS

The summer bible school being conducted under the direction of the Ogden Ministerial association held its first session yesterday in the Methodist church. There was a gratifyingly large attendance in all departments and much interest was manifested by teachers and students in the work.

The senior class is being conducted by Rev. H. D. Zimmerman, the junior by Miss Lamb and the primary by the Misses Mitchell and Dunsmore. The lessons were given in a way that combined the bible stories with history and geography and the manner in which the three subjects were interwoven proved educational as well as interesting.

The Ministerial union announces that visitors will be welcome to attend any of the sessions, which are held from 9:30 to 12 o'clock each morning.

A brief but beautiful funeral service was held this morning at the Kirkendall chapel over the body of Mrs. Paul Beemer, Rev. H. D. Zimmerman of the Baptist church officiated and delivered an impressive sermon.

The casket and altar were covered with a wealth of beautiful bouquets and floral pieces, sent by friends from Ogden and Salt Lake City. The funeral was attended by the local railroad officials in addition to the friends and relatives of the deceased.

The body was shipped to Salt Lake City at 1 p. m., accompanied by the surviving relatives, who were at the funeral.

The party was to be met at the Salt Lake depot by representatives of the Salt Lake Transportation club and Passenger Agents' association, who were to join the funeral cortege in the journey to Mt. Olivet cemetery, where the body is to be interred.

W. D. LINCOLN AND FAMILY HERE ON PLEASURE

The Lincolns expect to spend several days in the city and while here will visit Ogden canyon and other places of interest.

CANNERS ARE PLAYING MURRAY TEAM AT SALT LAKE

The Ogden Cannerymen are playing their second series with the Murray team this afternoon at Lucas field in Salt Lake City, while the Salt Lake and Boise teams are contending against each other at Boise.

With the four strongest teams pitted against each other, it is probable that the results of the present week will decide which team shall carry off the pennant for the first half of the split season.

There are virtually no cripples at present on either the Murray or Ogden teams and, as the pitchers of both clubs are now rounding into much better form, the present series should be very interesting. The Cannerymen, however, have the edge on the "Infants" with the stick, as they are now leading the league again in this department.

In today's game the batteries slated were Ballinger and Raedel for Ogden and Brown and Auer for Murray. Helena and Butte, the two tall-ends, are playing at Butte.

CHURCH HAS OBTAINED PART OF SUGAR TRUST STOCK

Since it became known that the American Sugar company would be required to dispose of its stock in the Amalgamated Sugar company of this city, the Eccles interests and associates have been ready to purchase and Manager L. R. Eccles made two trips to New York for that purpose, but he did not succeed in getting any of the stock. An offer of 75 cents was rejected, but negotiations continued for some time, the Mormon church, in the mean time, having been invited to take a part of the trust stock. The Eccles interests were told by President Smith that the matter would be given consideration but a definite answer, Manager L. R. Eccles says, has never been given as to whether the church would join in the purchase. The American company owned 50 per cent of the stock and the Eccles interests and associates were ready to purchase all of it or any part of it. The church was given the opportunity of taking half of the trust stock, which would be 25 per cent of the entire capital stock.

Manager Eccles states that, in the face of the fact that the church had been given an opportunity to buy the stock with the Ogden people he was surprised to know that C. W. Nibley, representing President Smith, who is trustee in trust for the church, had purchased 50 per cent of the trust stock at $87.50, which is $12.50 more than he had offered.

No transfer of the stock has been made, Mr. Eccles says, and nothing has been said to him regarding the purchase, but that he and his business associates in Ogden will not make further negotiations for the trust stock. He states that under the sale of 25 per cent of the stock to the church, the holdings of the American company now amount to 25 per cent, the same amount is held by the church and the balance, except ten shares held by H. H. Rolapp, is held by the Eccles interests and others.

Speaking of the possibility of removing headquarters of the Amalgamated company to Salt Lake, Mr. Eccles said he does not think that will be done, nor does he think any changes will be made in the directorate.

Snake Hunt and Much Excitement

A genuine snake hunt took place at the home of R. W. Shields, 2641 Washington avenue, yesterday afternoon, in which Mrs. Shields, Miss Myrtle Shields, the milkman, the police and a crowd of neighbors participated, but his snakeship "wriggled" out of the dragnet and is now probably on his way to the mountain fastnesses.

According to the story of the affair, Miss Shields started to go down the cellar by the outside stairs, when she saw a big snake coiled up on the porch through a hole, where a board had been broken off. About this time the milkman happened along and was told about the snake. The milkman informed the officers and Chief Norton suggested that Chauffeur Guy Nelson and Desk Sergeant Walter Wilson go after the snake.

The two officers obeyed the suggestion and, after arriving at the scene of the trouble, Sergeant Wilson endeavored to sight the snake in the dark recesses of the space under the porch. While he was thus engaged, Chauffeur Nelson made a "noise like a snake" and those present aver that the sound scared Sergeant Wilson out of a year's growth.

The search was discontinued as fruitless and later in the day Sergeant Wilson accompanied Officers Wooten and Manzel to the home to make another search. This was also fruitless and according to the latest reports, the snake is still at large.
